SAMPLE OF THE CHARITY'S WORK

Only One Case of the Many Which the Good Women Relieve.

"Tell me something of the work we are doing?" If I were to talk 24 hours I could not tell you of the many problems which confront us. From early morning until evening a steady stream of distress passes into our office. At the county dispensary and mothers and sick children come to the baby clinic to be comforted and healed. We are busy every moment of the day."

This was the reply of Miss H. Grace Franklin when asked something about the work of the Charity association, of which she is supervisor.
 It was a cold day and out of the drizzling rain came a mother carrying a baby in her arms. The father followed, carrying a seven year old boy. Both children were sick and almost naked and starving. The mother was scantily clad and the father tired and hungry. They were a picture of destitution and despair. They were admitted to the consultation room and examined by Dr. Klutz. He recognized in the woman the mother of a child which had died over a year ago of tubercular peritonitis.

Jesus, the seven year old boy, was ill from typhoid fever and the baby showed signs of the fatal disease, which had caused the death of the other child. The starved mother, the babies and the father all appeared to have lost the last spark of life. He seemed a mere machine. He had had no work for three months, there was no food for the children and they were crying with the cold. There is one other child, she is going to school seeking an education in spite of the fact that she is often breakfastless. Unless prompt action was taken, there would be another funeral and perhaps another case of tubercular in El Paso. The little fellow 14 months old was wearing a pair of worn out trousers belonging to his seven year old brother!

Now they are being cared for and Jesus is improving. He now sleeps in a clean bed, clothed in a night gown, has broth and milk to drink and his little brother is again dressed as a baby and is being fed baby food. And the charity is helping the man seek work. This is the work which the charity hall helps to keep up.

PETTICOATS $1.95

Persian Pattern Petticoats are favorites this winter. In fact, the demand is so great that manufacturers find it difficult to secure enough material for them. We were able to secure a quantity of mercerized satine in Persian patterns. This we turned over to our regular petticoat manufacturer. They are very attractive petticoats, made with deep pleated flounce and foot muffle. They have the appearance of a silk petticoat, and just about one-third the cost. They're the very nicest petticoats we have ever been able to offer at

$1.95

EXTRA! EXTRA! Petticoats $2.95

Here is a silk petticoat value that is entirely out of the ordinary, even for the Calisher store. These petticoats are made out of a soft finished, durable taffeta. They have plenty of fullness, and are finished with a tucked flounce 13 inches deep. There are only 50 petticoats at this price, and we suggest the earliest possible selection. Thanksgiving Sale Price tomorrow—

WAGON AND CAR COLLIDE SATURDAY

C. S. Ward Is Hurt, Car Damaged and Horse Has to Be Killed.

As a result of a collision Saturday afternoon at Boulevard and Kansas street between a Highland Park street car and a horse and wagon, Charles S. Ward, foreman of The Herald's composing room, who was a passenger on the car, was knocked insensible. He was carried home, 805 North Ochoa street, by Dr. B. F. Clutter and Dr. F. P. Miller, who were driving on Boulevard. He sustained internal injuries on his right side, and his right arm and leg were bruised. Injuries sustained by the horse included almost severing the left hind foot, the hoof hanging by the skin. The animal was shot.

The car, in charge of motorman Clanton and conductor Frick, was running east on Boulevard. The horse and wagon, owned by Adam Stanger, 508 South El Paso street, and driven by J. S. Friels and H. Kohler, chimney sweeps, was going south on Kansas street. The men included turning west on Boulevard, but it is said the horse slipped and crashed into the car. The car is one of the closed center compartment style, with open seats on either end.

Mr. Ward was sitting on the front seat on the left hand side of the car and was thrown from his seat by the force of the collision. The shafts of the wagon pushed through the screen of the car, and it is considered miraculous that Mr. Ward's body was not pierced.

In the Christmas gift calendar, diamonds—either in ring or other jewelry—take first place. We offer you a wide selection in diamond jewelry. Snyder Jewelry Co.

AMUSEMENTS

RAYMOND TEAL, HAPPY HOUR.

Says manager Fogg, of the Happy Hour: "Raymond Teal and his musical comedy company of over 30 people arrived in the city last night after a long railroad jump from Oklahoma City, where they closed Friday night a most successful summer stock engagement at the Lyric theater. Mr. Teal was completely astounded at the past year and says that El Paso, like all the middle west cities, must be in a most prosperous condition."

"Speaking of his winter's engagement scheduled to open at the Happy Hour theater tonight, Mr. Teal says he anticipates a most prosperous and pleasant engagement. He was a long time closing with me for the time here, as he was to open in Atlanta, Ga., for the winter's season, but the good reports he heard of El Paso induced him to make the switch. After closing his contract Mr. Teal went to all the eastern cities and has brought back with him a line of productions that will be staged here during his engagement. He has produced for him this season, A. N. Zinn, acknowledged to be the foremost popular priced musical comedy producer in the business. Miss Frances Grey, who stages all the dances, was ballet mistress at the New York Casino for the past two seasons.

"Teal, unlike most musical comedy stars, does not rely on his own versatility to carry his productions through, but has surrounded himself with a cast of exceptional strength. The principals are as follows: Raymond Teal, Geo. A. Burton, Will H. Cross, O. J. Post, Ted Rose, Harry Castelberry, Mable Darragh, Grace Wolf, Corinne Carkeek, Virginia Glenn Ellis and Miss Topsy Gates. The chorus with Teal is made a special feature and numbers 14 girls, all of whom he says are good singers and dancers. Some of the early productions to be staged are 'Teazy Weazy,' 'Sultan of Morocco,' 'The Grand Duchess,' 'The Three Musketeers,' 'The Telephone Girl,' 'The Spencers,' 'A Courtship in Japan,' 'The Fairy Queen,' and many others that will be mentioned later on.

"Mr. Teal carries a load of special scenery for all his productions and a most elaborate venture of wardrobe, all silks and satins. The policy will be two bills a week, changing on Thursday and Sunday, with one matinee a week, on Saturday. Seats can be secured for seven performances in advance at Ryan's drug store either by phone or messenger boy, and will be held at the box office till 8:15, the curtain time. An augmented orchestra will be used for this engagement under the direction of producer Zinn. The opening show tonight is that big Webster & Fields success, 'Teazy Weazy.'

THANKSGIVING ATTRACTION.
 Not the least of the successes which Augustus Thomas, journalist and playwright, has given to the stage, is "Arizona." The play, already an established favorite here, thrills with the vigor of western life and is deemed both romantic and realistic by local and other critics. "Arizona," with a company said to consist principally of the best members of the original cast, will be seen here at the El Paso theater Thursday, November 24. The prices will be 50c to $1.50. Seats are now on sale at the Crawford theater box office.
